Just speak-to me ___ What have you seen ___ that I can't see? I lis-ten to

Hm A D Fis Hm Fis Hm Fis

— your his-to-ry ___ Un-soun-ded cross-es just speak to me . . .

1. A frozen breeze is blowing through the land
 Where endless lines of still crosses stand
 And where a girl is blankly wandering
 Still searching for her one broken wing

2. Only a name and rank adorn the grass
 A broken helmet hanging above
 Faithfully he fought until the end
 He gave his life for his native land

Ref.: Unsounded crosses just speak to me
 What have you seen that I can't see?
 I listen to your history
 Unsounded crosses just speak to me

Ref.: Unsounded crosses just speak to me
 What have you seen that I can't see?
 I listen to your history
 Unsounded crosses just speak to me
