1. Tiny the path and winding the lane
 All the goals far we 're trying to gain
 Heavy the stones to build up the hill
 But we build it of free will!

2. Only the cowered is running from chance
 When a battle is waiting we start the offense
 When our world is burning, we don 't try to flee
 Death to the enemy!

3. When no longer blood and bones face the shields
 You already ride on the heavenly fields
 After the night arrives a new day
 When a raven's guiding your way

Ref.: I'm praising the Lord to be one of your crowd
 One of the last and one of the proud
 Life is a moment in death's mighty hand
 To defend your motherland
 To defend your motherland
 Defend your motherland!
